

Introduction to Personal Project

PART I: What is the PP?

PART II: What the weight of the PP?

PART III: When is it for?

PART IV: Who is part of it?

PART V: How and what do we communicate?

What is the PP?

Questions

What is the Personal Project?

Who? Where? When? Why? How?

What is the outcome?

Teams

Nitzan/Dana

with

Dhruv/Harsh

Bram/Hala

with

Lea/Simon/Shahen

Alma/Tony

with

Udine/Ornela

What the weight of the PP?

What is evaluated?

What are the criteria?

Does it count in the report?

Is it a requirement for the IB and the school?

Report formats

Format	Length
	English, French, Spanish and Arabic	Chinese	Japanese
Written	1,500–3,500 words	1,800–4,200 characters	3,000–7,000 kana/kanji
Electronic (website, blog, slideshow)	1,500–3,500 words	1,800–4,200 characters	3,000–7,000 kana/kanji
Oral (podcast, radio broadcast, recorded)	13–15 minutes	13–15 minutes	13–15 minutes
Visual (film)	13–15 minutes	13–15 minutes	13–15 minutes

When is it for?

First drafts (with written feedback)

Sept 17	Investigating + Bibliography
Oct 22	Planning
Dec 3	Taking action + Final product
Jan 14	Reflecting

Draft for oral feedback and final report

Feb 11	Draft of full report
March 4	Final report
End of March	IB samples required (report, final product, academic honesty)

Event

March 12	Exhibition
----------	------------

Who is part of the PP?

Personal Project Coordinator

Experts/specialists

Supervisor

STUDENT

Etc.

Other students

Parents

Other teachers

How and what do we communicate?

Google Drive

- Examples of reports
- Evaluation template
- Further guidance
- Etc.

E-mail

- Reminders
- General communication
- Supervisor comments/feedback/follow up
- Etc.